Captain Alexander Fleming of Westfalia, Rappahannock County, and his wives in her article in the Americana, Volume 33, p.1-31. She errs, however, in suggesting Alexander Fleming, planter, may have been a son of Captain Alexander Fleming as Rowland Thornton, grandson of the Captain, is dubbed his heir-at-law and he would not have been if Captain Alexander Fleming (16??-1668) had left male issue. Sweeny,p.3-4; see Rowland Thornton,p.211-212.

FLEMING, ALEXANDER (16??-1711), planter, married by 3 January 1692 Sarah Kennedy [Kenney, Kennida, Cannida &c:], daughter of John Kennedy, deceased, and niece of William Kennedy, deceased, both of Rappahannock County. DB#1,p.53; DB#3,p.13,121; DB#7,p.260,343; DB#16,p.240; WB#3,p.60; Sweeny,p.51. These citations will correct Mrs. Sweeny's statement in the Americana, Volume 33, p.31, that Alexander Fleming married Sarah, "daughter of William Kenny;" a careful reading of the cited document (DB#1,p.53) makes it certain the said Sarah was the daughter of John Kennedy and the niece of William Kennedy, both deceased, of Rappahannock County.

FORESTER : FORRESTER

FORRESTER, WILLIAM of Richmond County married 13 July 1715 Frances Bryant, daughter of Thomas Bryant of Lancaster County. Bondsman and witness: Richard Lee and John Callehan. LCMR#1,p.1
[William Forrester was murdered 5 November 1723 by Thomas Glascock. There is considerable detail in the volume called Fines, Examination of Criminals, Tryals of Slaves &c: 1710-1754, page 67 et seq. Gregory Glascock, son of Thomas Glascock, was named as an accessory in this crime and the matter was heard before the General Court of Virginia sitting in Williamsburg. In his last will and Testament, Colonel Robert Carter (1663-1732) of Corotoman, Lancaster County, refers to the land of Thomas Glascock of Richmond County.]

FORRESTER, WILLIAM and Penelope Ersbien (spinster), bond 11 August 1750. James Forrester (b). [Ersbien-Erskein-Erskin-Ersking &c: seem to interchange. On 2 April 1750 administration on the estate of William Erskein was granted to Penelope Erskein and an inventory of his estate remains of record. See William Ersking (q.v.), p.65. COB#12,p.227; WB#5,p.60.]

JOHN FLEMING, son of Alexander Fleming and Elizabeth Anderson, was born about 1633, perhaps in Glasgow or Cumbernauld, Lanarkshire, Scotland. He died in New Kent County, Virginia, 27 Aug. 1686. He married MERCY or MARY. He had generous grants of land in New Kent County, in the years 1658, 1661, 1670, 1673, 1680. The Registers of Charles Parish, York County, Va., 1648-1789, yield these entries:

"Lidia Flemming, dau. of John by Marcy, bap. Oct. 30, 1679."

"John Fleming, son of John by Mary, b. April 14, 1683." (p. 90)

"John Fleming departed this Life ye 27th day of August and was Buried ye 30th of Augt, 1686." (p. 59)

His will, if he made one, was lost in the destruction of the New Kent records.

Biography

There is no direct evidence that John was the son of Captain Alexander Fleming. He is not mentioned in any of the many records Alexander made when he gave land and other gifts to his children.

There are no pub

John Fleming appears in Virginia records when he was granted a patent on 28 Feb 1658 for 250 acres in New Kent County (Patent Book 4, p. 254). Although there are exceptions, a man had to be 21 in order to take out a patent. If John was in fact 21, he must have been born before 1637 or at least six years before the marriage contract between Alexander Fleming and Elspet Anderson.

The baptisms of two of John's children are recorded in Charles Parish, York County. They are Lidia, daughter by Mercy bap. 30 Oct 1679 and John, son by Mary bap. 14 April 1683. There is nothing to tell us whether or not Mercy and Mary were the same person.

An interesting question is what went on in John's life between 1658 and 1679? Did he have other wives and children?

Charles Fleming was very probably related to John Fleming but we don't know if he was a son, brother, nephew or some other relation. Charles is usually said to be John's son. They lived on adjacent land and Charles took up a patent which had first been granted to John.

Reviewing the information from the Richmond County, VA Deed and Order Books dated 1699-1701 it looks like the William Lawson that married Isabell Kennedy is not the William Lawson of Falling River that died in Bedford County, VA about 1754. Isabell Lawson's husband, William, died before 5 March 1700/01 in Richmond County, VA.

Richmond County, VA, Deed Book 3, 1697-1704, pages 65-66, 22 August 1699 - Whereas John Kennedy, late of this County, deceased, died seized of 200 acres of Land situated, lying and being on the South side of Totaskey Creek in the said County and by his Last Will and Testament did give and bequeath the said 200 acres of land unto his Eldest Son, John Kennedy Junior and his heirs and for want of issue of issue to James Kennedy and his heirs and for want of issue to be equally divided between his four daughters, Sarah, Alitia, Mary and Isabell Kennedy, who now survives and are all married, the eldest to Alexander Fleming, the second to Thomas Alger, the third to George Blewford and the fourth to William Lawson. Now so it is that we the above parties with the free consent and desires of our wives have the day above written unanimously condescended and earnestly requested, entreated and desired Mr. James Samford, Mr. Thomas Baylis, Mr. Samuel Samford and Edward Jones ind! ifferently elected and chosen by us the Subscribers to lay out and make as equal division of the said 200 acres of land into four several parts according to the best of their Judgments, we having already made choice of our several lots and whatsoever the said Mr. James Samford, Mr. Thomas Baylis, Mr. Samuel Samford and Edward Jones shall do in or about the premises we shall be therewith content and hold the same firm and as stable as if by due course of Law it had been divided. As Witness our hand the day and year first above written. Test. Owen Dermott, Richard Apleby and John Lovett. Signed Alexander Fleming (his mark), Thomas Algar, George Bluford (his mark) and Wm. Lawson (his mark).

Whereas by the unanimous consent and earnest desire of these within mention Alexander Flemming, Thomas Algar, George Bluford and Wm. Lawson as intermarrying with the Orphans and Daughters of John Kennedy within mentioned deceased to divide and set apart to each Daughter their due proportion of the within 200 acres of Land and division thereof by lines of marked trees, in concurrence thereof we the Subscribers with their several consents and desires (they having sometime before made choice of their several lots, which lots they have according to each man's desire therein concerned layed out by the several dividing lines of marked trees according to the best of our Judgments and their concernments as as Witness our hands this 22 August 1699. Teste. Alexander Fleming (his mark), Thomas Algar, Wm. Lawson (his mark), James Samford, Samuel Samford and Edward Jones. Recorded Test. Wm. Colston, Clerk Current.

Richmond County, VA, Deed Book 3, 1697-1704, pages 79-84, 2 October 1699 - George and Mary Bluford traded their 50 acres they received from John Kennedy's estate to Samuel Samford for 50 acres that he held. Isabell Lawson (her mark) was a witness in both of this indentures.

Richmond County, VA, Order Book 3, 1699-1704, page 32, Court held 5 April 1700 - The action brought by Wm. Lawson, Merchant, against Isabell Ockley is dismissed, Plaintiff not prosecuting.

Richmond County, VA, Order Book 3, 1699-1704, page 79, Court held 5 March 1700/01 - Ordered that Mr. Samuel Samford, James Caward, Thomas Algar, John Foushee or any three of them some time between this and the next Court held for this County do meet and do Inventory and appraise all and singular the Estate of Wm. Lawson, deceased and make report thereof under their hands in writing to the said next Court. Mr. John Baker is requested to swear the said appraisers for their due appraisement as also all other persons as it may be thought needful for a true inventory of the said Estate.

Richmond County, VA, Order Book 3, 1699-1704, page 97, Court held 7 May 1701 - Ordered that Isabella Lawson be paid 450 pounds of tobacco out of the Estate of Wm. Lawson, her deceased husband, being in satisfaction of his funeral and other charges in the time of his sickness.

Provincial Court
[illegible], 1656
Sept. 22,

Whereas a difference between Cornelius Cannady + hism wife Susan was referred to the hearing of Richard Preston and Mr. Michael Brooke to see if it could be reconciled, either to be united, or to find what might be done in a way of equity if they were minded to live asunder. Finding that they were willing to part, we find that they are agreed upon these terms: Susan shall have all the household stuff and what else she can justly claim she brought with her out of Va. Susan to be allowed so much tob. at the crop as shall pay for a cow, Cannady allowing her 1300 lbs. tob. + cask wch. is for several debts rec'd. by him due to her and goods sold as by a note of particulars may appear. And to this agreement both parties have assented (viz) that Susana binds herself for the future not to demand any further allowance, maintenance or subsistance from Cornelius her husband, and Cornelius engages himself to perform the above. Singend June 21, 1656, and to be further confirmed June 28 of this inst.

Biography

Death: Cornelius Cannaday
Birth: 1600 or 1624
Date arrived in Maryland: 1643, servant, date free: 1652
Wife: Susan, first mentioned in 1656, obtained a separation in same year,[1] married in Virginia?
Occupations: Brickmaker, planter
Probate records: none
Children (see Susan Cannaday's will[2]

- James (not of age in 1663)
- John
- William
- Susan

Death: At her death in 1663, Susan said she was a widow, so Cornelius must have died between 1659 when a court action was recorded and 1663.[3]

Marriage ended in separation

Suit for separation between Susan Canaday and Cornelius Canaday initiated June 16 1656.[4][5]
Separation decreed by the Provincial Court on Sept 22, 1656.[6] Terms of separation: Susan gets "all household stuff and what she can justly claim she brought from Va." Cornelius must also give her enough tobacco to pay for a cow, Cannady allowing her 1,340 lbs. and cask for debts rec'd by him due to her and goods sold as shown in a list presented in court. Susan will not ask for any other support in the future.[7]

You are correct Tom. I changed it to an unmerged match with a note that the difference must be resolved. There are many different spellings of this family's name that it becomes a judgment call sometimes. The variants for a single person ought to be noted in the profile.
